

TOAD THE WET SPROCKET ANNOUNCES 2019 U.S. SUMMER TOUR CELEBRATING OVER 30 YEARS of MAKING MUSIC

New Logo Design Captures the Spirit of the Summer Anniversaries and Will be Featured on New Merch Line

SANTA BARBARA, CA – Toad the Wet Sprocket is happy to announce their 2019 U.S. summer tour, celebrating over 30 years of making music. Tickets will go on sale Monday, March 11th, a limited number of VIP Meet & Greet packages will be available. 2019 marks two important milestones for Toad. One is the 25th Anniversary of their Platinum album Dulcinea, originally released in 1994, which featured the hits “Fall Down” and “Somethings Always Wrong”. The second is the 30th Anniversary of the band’s very first album Bread & Circus, which was re-released commercially in 1989.

Toad continues to support their latest releases, New Constellation (2013) and The Architect of Ruin EP (2015) and will be performing fan favorites like “Walk on the Ocean,” “All I Want,” “I Will Not Take These Things for Granted” and many more. These tracks are included on All You Want (2011), which will be available at shows and online.

A line of merchandise featuring new designs will be available online and at shows. Fans can also purchase recently released vinyl including fear, Dulcinea online and on tour, and a special limited-edition, vinyl “box set” which will be available in the Toad the Wet Sprocket online store.

As part of the summer tour, Toad will be supporting The Sierra Club and their efforts to “Protect the Future and Our Earth”, and will co-headline a run of dates with long-time friends Big Head Todd & the Monsters.
